

There's the glitter of beads and bugles, rhinestones and semi-precious jewels on many of the evening gowns for this winter, even on the all white frock for a debutante like Margot Kelly.

The favorite chemise dress, like Carlotta Monterey's one piece crinkle broche girdle in metal, has taken as its companion the cape coat of the same heavy silk bordered in fur.

There's a girde, if you wish, to give the desired low waist line to this simple but clever dancing frock which might be interpreted in velvet, but which Margot Kelly is showing you in a soft crepe.

Navy blue tricotine now takes unto itself green chiffon to produce the desired bouffancy in the sleeves.

To-day we have brought the English herringbone tweed suit in from the country, have given it the 1922 flare and discreet touches of beaver, topped it with a duvetyn hat drooping with coque and wear it in town as Elinor Woodruff is doing.

Brocaded mules support the beauty of a boudoir wrap.

Blackheads indicate your cleansing method is wrong

BLACKHEADS indicate that the method you are using is not the right method of cleansing for your type of skin.

A skin specialist would tell you that blackheads are caused by excessive oil collecting dirt in the pores of your skin.

To do away with the cause of blackheads and free your skin from this disfiguring trouble, use the following simple treatment:

APPLY hot cloths to the face until the skin is reddened.

Then with a rough washcloth work up a heavy lather of Woodbury's Facial Soap and rub it into the pores thoroughly, always with an upward and outward motion.

Rinse with clear, hot water, then with cold—the colder the better.

If possible, rub your face for thirty seconds with a piece of ice. Dry carefully.

To remove blackheads already formed, substitute a flesh brush for the washcloth in this treatment. Then protect the fingers with a handkerchief and press out the blackheads.

GET a cake of Woodbury's today, at any drug store or toilet goods counter, and begin this treatment tonight. You will be astonished to see how quickly your skin will improve in clearness.

A 25-cent cake of Woodbury's will last for a month or six weeks. The Andrew Jergens Co., Cincinnati, New York and Perth, Ontario.

Silk suits for winter! Why not, especially for the formal day-time functions and when they are like Elinor Woodruff's of crepe matelasse bordered in kolinsky.
